OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY

No flag but the Old Flag—the Red, White and Blue,
With the stars of a Union unbroken and true!
Arise and defend it ye souls of the brave
Whose blood bought the banner your valor must save

FRIDAY MORNING, MAY 30, 1862

Jerome B. Greer

Who is he? A resident of Salem—a man who never voted a democratic ticket in his life—a know-nothing, and a disciple of Jeff Davis. He is now a candidate on the secesh State ticket for State Treasurer

What was he put there for? Because he was known to be a bitter secessionist The Mountaineer, whose editor was a delegate at the Corvallis Convention, says of him that "He rejoiced over the defeat of the Union troops at the battle of Bull Run"

John Chapman, a well-known citizen of Salem, thus testifies in regard to this Greer

"In a conversation had with Jerome B Greer, in the store of John C Bell, of Salem some time in the fall of 1861, the advance in the price of coffee being the topic, Mr Greer stated that it would be much higher still if England and France did not interfere and break up the blockade, which he hoped to God they would do

Having been informed that he denied the above in Dallas, Polk county, I hereby certify that it is true Given under my hand this 26th day of April, 1862.

JOHN CHAPMAN"

John F. Miller.

This man is the secesh candidate for Governor. Up to and after his nomination he was a democrat of the Stark stamp—that is, all his sympathies were with the South How he stood on the 6th day of March last, the following statement will show

"DALLAS, Polk county, Oregon, }
April 25, 1862 }

About the 6th day of May last, Capt John F. Miller was in my office at Dallas, in Polk county, and I then heard him say that he would not, on any consideration, bear arms against the Southern Confederacy, and that he was opposed to coercion, that the United States Government had no right to coerce a State.

B F. NICHOLS, Co Clerk

I certify that I have heard Captain Miller make statements similar to the above on several occasions.

B. SIMPSON

That was John F. Miller on the 6th day of May last. Since the great Union victories over the rebels have taken place—since he has been round the State and finds the people are firm for the Union and in favor of the means now used by the Government for sustaining it, feeling that the people will not sustain a candidate who has favored treason, he is laboring to whitewash himself But he might as well attempt to whitewash a negro baby. In his speech at the theatre in this city, he said.

"I believe in the preservation of the Union, and that the old flag should float over every inch of American soil, but I believe too that this government for its greatness and all it has, is responsible to the democracy. I am willing to pay taxes, great or small, to put down this rebellion, and no sane man who appreciates the value of our free institutions would object to do likewise Democrats have done more than any other party to prosecute this war."

His eyes have been suddenly opened He is for the national flag, the national Union—in favor of taxes to support the war—of coercing by force the rebels into peace!!!

Beautiful, is it not? And what becomes of all the stuff published in the Advertiser and other papers of the same kidney against the war—against taxes—against the suspension of the habeas corpus—against the violations of the Constitution—against Lincoln—against democrats—against the Government for prosecuting this war?

But we have no faith in you, John F Miller. This repentance is a death bed one It will do you no good. No citizen of the State can misunderstand the motives that have prompted you to make the remarks quoted from your speech in Portland You did not dare to talk in this way in the Southern part of the State. Had you done so the whole secession tribe would have denounced you

John F. Miller for the Abolition and the Emancipation of Negroes.

Start not, reader! If there is any truth in the platform put forth by the Corvallis Convention, the heading of this paragraph is LITERALLY TRUE provided, also THAT THERE IS TRUTH IN THE DECLARATIONS MADE BY MILLER in his speech in this city

The Corvallis platform says—which everybody knows is a lie—that THIS WAR IS WAGED "NOT ONLY FOR THE LIBERATION BUT FOR THE ENFRANCHISEMENT OF SLAVES"

Now, Miller says he is for the war—for taxes to sustain it—and that no sane man is against the policy

Great are the mysteries of secession democracy!

Judge Wait.

He was asked in the Southern part of the State if he would vote for all the candidates on the secession ticket, knowing them to be secessionists—and he was mum!

He was "for compromise." Would you compromise so as to bring back the leading traitors and make them eligible for Presidents and Vice Presidents, Senators and Representatives in Congress? Answer—mum!

You hear what Miller says He is for war taxation, and the punishment of traitors. He is against your scheme of compromise He don't go for your hair splitting, abstraction secession doctrines—and you are asked if you are with him, and your answer is, "Compromise, mum!" You ask the votes of Union men, and you will get the reply, "Mum"

Judge Wait and Taxation.

On this subject Judge Wait is awfully exercised He thinks that the war which his secession friends have forced upon the country will produce heavy taxation He hopes to persuade Jeff Davis to stop the war and save expense

Miller on Taxation.

Miller, on the same ticket, is for war, vigorous war, and all necessary taxation, and he tells the Judge that "No sane man is against the war" A pretty home-thrust

The Fact is

That Judge Wait, as Miller intimates, has exhibited many soft places in his present canvass, and Miller has the best means of judging of his insanity

Union Men!

Stand by your colors! It may be true that secessionists have struck their dusky flag and have raised the Stars and Stripes But it will be only for the same object that Jeff Davis' troops at Manassas raised the starry flag—to deceive the Unionists—to get them within range of their deadly missiles!

Be not deceived by this act of treason in the secession camp Stand by the men that at all times, in weal or woe, stand by the glorious Union Flag

From the Upper Columbia and the Mines

The following items are from the Walla Walla Statesman, of May 24th:

A LARGE LUMP—Mr E L James, of Wells, Fargo & Co's express, exhibited to us a few days ago some two ounces of Powder river dust, brought over on Sunday last by Mr Charles Zaley The gold is coarse—one of the pieces weighing $9,75.

A man named Thos Maine died in the Grand Ronde valley, on the 21st ult, from poison by eating wild parsnip roots

Wells, Fargo & Co's express brought down upwards of 120 pounds of gold dust from the mines on Tuesday last The most of this dust came from Salmon river

A young man named Robert Robinson was drowned in John Day's river on the 5th inst

The distance by the new county road from Walla Walla to Wallula is 31½ miles

The emigration to Salmon river is still increasing—a much larger number of miners having passed through our city this week than last At a moderate estimate, there cannot be less than twenty to twenty five thousand persons now in the mines and on the road between this city and that point:

The county of Idaho was regularly organized on the 4th instant.

A correspondent writing to the Statesman from Florence City, under date of May 10th and 16th says No pack trains had arrived up the 10th Flour was selling at $60 per 100 lbs, and Bacon at one dollar per pound

The snow is going off rapidly under the influence of the summer sun, and in three weeks the mountain trails—now bare in many places—will be easily traveled.

I learn, definitely that new and valuable gold discoveries have been made on the head of White Bird creek, on the Millner road, paying from $25 to $30 per day

An Indian has exhibited coarse gold to some miners and has agreed, and started, to pilot them to a place where there is more of the same kind He agrees to suffer hanging if he fails to conduct them to the place. It is somewhere across Salmon.

Several parties have started up Salmon river to a place where it is said a rich quartz vein was discovered last fall. Specimens, it is said, were taken to San Francisco for assay, and yielded $16,000 to the ton, which is pretty good pay, you must allow.

Additional Items from the "Mountaineer."

Col Thos Hays, and Gregory Yale, Esq, distinguished citizens of California, are now at the Dalles They are on their way to the upper country, whither they go for the purpose of testing by personal observation the richness of the Northern mines

TREASURE —The steamer arrived at the Chutes yesterday, bringing down $100,000 in treasure.

PARDON OF J C JAMISON —Petitions are in circulation, asking the pardon of J C Jamison who was convicted of the murder of the old man Burns, and sentenced to ten years imprisonment in the Penitentiary

INDICTMENTS —The Grand Jury for the present term of the District Court returned the following indictments Ferdinand Vote, for an assault with intent to murder William Wiley, for the crime of perjury William McErwin Peter Bruse, Milton H Egleston, Edward McErwin, charged with larceny (The bonds of these defendants were declared forfeited) John Harrison, charged with fornication and adultery.

LEWISTON —From Mr Jones, of Wells, Fargo & Co's Express, we learn that the water commenced raising in the Snake river on Friday last and up to the time the boat left on Sunday, had raised six feet. The flat on the Clearwater side of the town was overflown, and should the river continue to raise there was a certainty of a general flooding out The freshet in the Snake river will account for the high stage of water at the Dalles which is now fully up to the high water mark of '59

Fort Pulaski, near Savannah was surrendered to the Union forces on the anniversary of the first day's fire upon Fort Sumter

By Last Night's Mail.

Later by Overland Telegraph.

Dates to May 22d.

CAIRO, May 18.—A large number of refugees from Memphis arrived here yesterday They say that officers from Corinth, who are frequently in Memphis, complain bitterly of the loss to the rebel cause sustained by delay in Gen Halleck not making an attack. Beauregard had been ready for over a week Every day's delay weakens him He has received all reinforcements possible for him to procure, except raw levees, while sickness rages in his camp to an alarming extent The whole country for hundreds of miles around Corinth has been swept for supplies to subsist the rebel army Any one is ready to admit the impossibility of subsisting a large army any length of time south of Corinth They will make a desperate stand there, and if defeated, guerrilla warfare on a general scale as a last resort. The Union people of Memphis are sorely dispirited at the delay of our fleet in reaching that city They have been expected some time and in anticipation of their arrival have been emboldened to utterance of Union sentiments that have got them into trouble They assert there is no obstacles after possessing Fort Wright

Three cases of yellow fever at New Orleans last week.

Gen. Pope's Division is now 3 miles from Corinth Deserters from the rebel camp state that a great deal of bad feeling exists between soldiers from Tennessee and Missouri, and those from the extreme South; the former urging, that as their States are restored to the Union they have nothing to fight for, and see no reason why they should be asked to fight for the independence of the Cotton States

WASHINGTON, May 19.—Specials to the New York papers state that the removal of General Hunter is fully determined on

Accounts from McClellan's army, state that Gen Sumner has been relieved from active service in consequence of his refusal to reinforce Heintzleman at the battle of Williamsburg

NEW YORK, May 19.—News from North Carolina states that Gov Clark refuses to furnish any more troops and has recalled the N C troops now in the rebel army A convention has been held which pronounces against furnishing further aid. This is virtually a return to the Union In answer to a demand from Davis for additional troops, and means of transportation for his army through the Cotton States, Gov Clark replied Davis has received all the aid he could expect Any further movement of troops will be allowed to leave the State Gov Clark also pronounces the rebels they could use and roads in retreating homewards, that they could run their own risk of being intercepted by Union forces in any part of the State

Late advices from Texas state there is a strong, growing Union sentiment, particularly in the Western portion of the State Since the death of McCulloch, they are becoming clamorous for peace Gen Houston is said to be for the Union, but prudence compels him to keep quiet

LOUISVILLE, May 19.—The Macon (Ga) Telegraph condemns in severe language the conduct of rebel troops at Bridgeport, by which that most important gateway to the State was opened to the enemy, and possession of rich mines and depots of iron and saltpetre were placed in danger

CAIRO, May 19.—The rebel general killed at Farmington on the 9th is now believed to be Sterling Price Our loss was 21 killed, including 2 Lieutenant Colonels Wounded rebels acknowledge a loss of 120 killed and wounded

Goldsborough's expedition consisting of steam frigate Susquehannah, 3 gunboats and one tug went up James river and found rebel batteries at Dog Point and Hardy's Bluffs Jamesville, or New port News, abandoned also all rebel batteries between there and Jamestown with guns dismounted. The expedition is still going up the river securing most of the ordnance left by the rebels. Of 28 shots which struck the Galena 18 penetrated The Monitor was uninjured. Both returned down the river Friday last. A letter from on board the Galena says she fired 238 shots and in two hours more, if she had had plenty of shells would have silenced their batteries

CAIRO, May 20th.—Memphis refugees say the Provost Marshal recently burned 1,500 bales of cotton and emptied a large quantity of sugar and molasses into the river All troops with the exception of three companies of home guards, composed of Union men, have left for Corinth

New York, May 19.—The French steamer Montezuma from Vera Cruz, 6th, reports French army marching on Mexico meeting but little opposition

Suffolk, Va., was occupied by the Federals May 18th

Washington, May 20th.—The President to day issued this proclamation That whereas, there appears in public prints what purports to be a proclamation of Maj General Hunter and the same is producing some excitement and misunderstanding

Therefore, I Abraham Lincoln proclaim and declare that the Government of the United States had no knowledge or belief of the intention on the part of Hunter to issue such proclamation further, neither Gen Hunter nor any other commander has been authorized to make proclamation declaring slaves free and the proclamation now in question is altogether void so far as respects such declaration The President further makes known that whether it is competent for him as Commander in Chief of the Army and Navy to declare slaves of any State free, and whether at any time it shall become necessary or indispensable to the maintenance of the Government to exercise such supposed power, are questions reserved to himself and which he cannot feel justified in leaving to the decision of commanders in the field He earnestly urges the people of the slave States to give enlarged consideration to the compensation emancipation resolutions of the 6th March and says the proposal makes common cause of a common subject The changes it contemplates would come gently as the dews from heaven not conflicting or working any harm He concludes that so much good has not been done by one effort in all past time as in God's Providence it is now your privilege to do May the vast future not have to lament that you neglected it

Washington, May 19th.—The universal topic is the President's proclamation repudiating the unauthorized conduct of Gen Hunter

White House, Va., 19th.—Army commenced moving early this morning in the direction of Richmond; will encamp some miles in advance of this place. Our advance under Gen Stoneham reached the railroad bridge at Chickahominy yesterday which was burnt but can be repaired very soon Pickets of the enemy are guarding the whole line of the river in front of Richmond making it difficult to obtain any reliable information from that city. Gen McClellan went on a reconnoissance to Chickahominy to day

Cairo, may 20.—Several newspaper correspondents from the army before Corinth have been expelled from camp by order of Gen Halleck

WASHINGTON, May 20.—Edward Stanley of Ky. received his commission as military Governor of North Carolina and will soon leave for the scene of his labors. He is invested with all the powers pertaining to that office including power to establish all necessary offices and tribunals and to suspend the writ of habeas corpus during the pleasure of the President or until loyal inhabitants shall organize a State Government in accordance with the Constitution.

Independent Candidate for County Clerk,

JAMES W. COING,

IN announcing myself as a candidate for the above office at the coming election I would state that I do so uninfluenced by any of the political issues of the day, though adhering to the principles of the Democratic party when conducive to the support of the Constitution and the preservation of the Federal Union which I revere. Having been long and I trust favorably known throughout the county I offer myself upon my own merits for the office, abiding by the decision of the people at the ballot box.

SPEAKING LAST NIGHT.—The theatre was last night to hear the speeches of the parties in the coming election. The crats got a terrible skinning. We refer to this more at length in issue.

PUBLIC SPEAKING.—We are authorized to say that the Rev. Thos. H. Pearne will address the citizens of Portland in behalf of the Union cause at the Willamette theatre this evening at seven o'clock, precisely. It is desirable that our citizens should be in attendance early in the evening.

The attention of the Ladies and Gentlemen is respectfully solicited to the new styles of DRESS GOODS and CLOTHING, just received by the steamer, consisting of French Poplins, De Beges, Challis, De Beges Silks, Gros de Rhines, Delaines, Ducals, French Hats, New Style Bonnets, and the Latest Styles of Paris Gros de Rhine Cloaks, together with a full assortment of Spring Sacks, Business Suits, Summer Raglans, French Cloth Frock Coats, Doeskin Pants, Light Silk Vests, and New Style Hats, all intended expressly for the present season. All the articles are now ready for sale, and can be seen at HARKERS', opposite the Upper Wharf.

Coughs.—The sudden changes of our climate are sources of PULMONARY, BRONCHIAL, and ASTHMATIC AFFECTIONS. Experience having proved that simple remedies often act speedily and certainly when taken in the early stages of the disease, recourse should at once be had to "Brown's Bronchial Troches," or Lozenges, let the Cold, Cough, or Irritation of the Throat be ever so slight, as by this precaution a more serious attack may be effectually warded off. PUBLIC SPEAKERS and SINGERS will find them effectual for clearing and strengthening the voice. See advertisement.

The Medical and Surgical Institute of DR. L. J. CZAPKAY is already secured in a position which places it, as well as its proprietor, far above the assaults of envy and professional malice. In the schools of France, the highest prizes are always awarded to practitioners in this department of medical science, and they occupy, with others, an equally lofty position in the profession. Ricord is an illustrious example, a shining light among the philosophical stars of Europe in Europe and Dr. Czapkay has fully equalled him in this country, as a proof of which, the Philadelphia College of Medicine complimented him with a Diploma, and the honorary ad eundem degree. Selecting this as his field of operation after being qualified as a graduate of the University of Pesth, and late Chief Surgeon of the Hungarian Revolutionary army, for these extended labors, Dr. L. J. Czapkay has bent his earnest attention to the cure of chronic and private diseases, in which he has become so great an expert, that he is now regarded as the LEADER in this branch of his profession throughout the United States, and his portrait and biography are published as worthy of interest to their readers in the most exclusive journals. The Doctor's office is at his Medical and Surgical Institute, on Sacramento street, corner of Leidesdorff, nearly opposite the buildings of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, San Francisco. We ask particular attention of our readers to the several certificates and cards, in another column of this paper. Persons at a distance wishing to lose time in corresponding, please enclose $10 in their letters, and they will get immediate attention to their cases. Address, L. J. CZAPKAY, M. Dietz's Diamond Oil.

WE NOW OFFER TO THE PUBLIC in full confidence a new article of

KEROSENE OIL,

Which we warrant in every particular to be

Superior to any other Oil ever brought to the San Francisco market. It has been thoroughly tested in all the different Patent Coal Oil Burners, and found to produce

More Light and Burn Longer

by one-third than any other oil in use.

Among the many advantages of this KEROSENE OIL over other oil is: First, that it is perfectly NON-EXPLOSIVE, and can be used with perfect safety in all kinds of LAMPS. Second. It is free from all objectionable and unpleasant smells, and burns with a clear white brilliant flame. We cordially solicit the public and FAMILIES to give this Oil a trial, and once tried we feel confident it will gain a preference over all other Oil for economy as well as its superior burning qualities.

In order to protect ourselves against Counterfeits we have placed a brand on each can and case, which will be known as

DIETZ'S DIAMOND OIL.

It is now offered at wholesale and retail at

505 Front street,

Between Washington and Jackson streets,
And at Branch Store, 56 Second street,

From the Oregon Farmer

[The following pathetic poem [illegible] by a departure from Vermont for California [illegible] 18[illegible] 1860 It doubtless pictures a similar [illegible] in the history of thousands on this coast [illegible]]

THE PARTING HOUR

BY S [illegible] ROCKWELL

I knew by the light in her deep blue eye
And the words that fell from her faltering [illegible],
That her heart was touch'd to a tender [illegible]
Over the ills that might possibly come
And I saw that the pulse of a woman's heart
Beat warm and high like a kindled fire
For she [illegible] my cheek
And pressed my hand
As I sailed in search
Of this golden land

Three fair haired daughters I left behind,
And their presence [illegible] the [illegible],
As I think of my [illegible]
I hardly can tell which I love the more
O proud as my jewels [illegible] and [illegible]
More valued than riches [illegible]
I shall never forget
How they grasped my hand,
As I sailed in search
Of this distant land

How fair was the flash of that wintry morn
As it broke on the upland and [illegible] the skies,
Gilding mountain and glen and the [illegible]
Yet brighter than all the light of those eyes
Which offered in parting, what tongue [illegible]
The final "God bless you" the [illegible]
And I never can forget
The parting "good bye"
Expressed not in word
But [illegible] the eye

Not time's rapid flight, nor changes of place,
Nor tropical scenes, nor a golden [illegible]
Can ever eclipse the light of each face
Which shone as we parted as never before
And the prayers that we mingled to heaven on high
Though suppressed by emotion, [illegible] the eye
And I never can forget,
The tear drops that fell,
The final "God bless you,"
The parting farewell

Los Angeles, May 10th 1862

The Farmer's Courtship.

"Letty!"

"Well Uncle?"

"I picked you out a husband to day"

"Ah! how thoughtful and considerate—but how know you I've a penchant for the annoying disagreeables?"

"O, all girls want to get married of course, and you are not an immaculate exception to the general rule, I take it—hey, Letty?"

Letty's cheeks reddened perceptibly, and she abstractedly wound and unwound the heavy coil of hair she was wreathing around her head, standing tiptoe before the small, old fashioned mirror in her Uncle's keeping room

"Now I suppose you haven't a spice of curiosity to know who it is?"

"Curiosity being generously assigned by men as a purely feminine attribute, I shan't disclaim my share in the marvelling propensity"

"Very nice and very pretty, Miss Letty that sly hint for the men, but nurse your curiosity to keep it lively. I shan't tell you a word about him, but [illegible]" here he walked twice slowly across the white, sanded floor, took his hat from the table and went silently out, but as he was closing the outer door, he concluded with—"he's coming to-morrow, Letty"

"Letty dear, I wish you would put up your flowering a little while, and help me a minute or two, I've got a sight of work to do this morning—and I wish you'd make some of them nice sponge rolls you made Thanksgiving day for supper I don't understand them some way and you have a knack of fixing them up so slick we want something a little uncommon you know for your Uncle says that they are very genteel fellers"

"Genteel fellows, are they, aunty?" and Letty arose with a laugh, laying by her embroidery to compound the sponge rolls

When her Uncle came in a few minutes later, with a basket of pine kindlings and a huge back-log and fore-stick for the west room fireplace, he found her at the kitchen table, vigorously beating the piled up foaming whites of eggs in a large yellow bowl Her curls tucked behind her ears, her cheeks flushing with the exercise, her white arms bared above the round dimpled elbows, and the skirt of her crimson merino mainly hidden under the voluminous folds of a home made checked apron

Her Uncle regarded her a moment with evident pride and pleasure, then as he was leaving the room, he said to her, with a sly twinkle in his eye—"I shall tell him who made the sweet cakes and that'll be about as good as love powders"

"There, there, Pa, don't pester the child so," and Aunty Martin came from the pantry with a couple of pies she wanted Letty to crimp for the oven

At sunset the tea table was spread in the glow of the west room fireplace, filled with tempting viands, that, as Aunt Martin said, were "good enough for a king any day" The white dimity curtains had been put back with a loop of blue ribbon; the tiny looking glass wore its crown of wreathing asparagus, thick with scarlet berries The ponderous maple logs blazed and crackled in the broad, deep fireplace, flooding the room with genial warmth, flinging a radiant crimson glow over the quaint, simple furniture, the table with its cloth of snow, the tiny old fashioned china, and massive silver pitcher, an heir loom in the family The freshly sprinkled sand on the white floor was swept into curves and flowers with a taste and ingenuity housekeepers at the present age might vainly seek to imitate

Mr Martin had comfortably settled himself in his high-backed chair in a corner of the fireplace, eagerly listening for the distant chime of bells, turning at intervals to renew the fire light with pieces of split pitchwood from a basket at his side, stirring the glowing coals with an enormous firepoker, the slender arms of to day could scarcely wield

"There, now, I hear bells ringing pretty sharply; run to the porch window, Letty, your eyes are better than mine, and see if you can make out if they are coming here"

"Yes, Uncle, a red and blue sleigh with a pair of black horses—they are turning in here"

"That's them! hand me my woolen comforter and mittens, throw on that chunk in the corner and the rest of that pitchwood in the basket, let's have a roaring fire for 'em, for it's stinging cold out doors.

[illegible] night, followed by involuntary discharges, have all disappeared and in fact in two months after having reached the doctor I felt as if inspired by a new life—that life which but a short time ago I contemplated to end by my own hand With the view to guard the unfortunate from falling into the snares of incompetent quacks, I deem it my duty to offer this testimony to the merit and skill of Dr. Czapkay, and recommend him to all who may stand in need of medical aid, being assured by my own experience, that one under his care a radical and permanent cure will be effected.

B F FITMORE,

State of California County of San Francisco:
Subscribed and sworn to before me, this seventh day of April A D 1856 Signed [L S] JOHN MIDDLATON, Notary Public.

MARYSVILLE, June 2d, 18[illegible].

DR L J CZAPKAY San Francisco—Sir I have used the last of your medicine and do not think I shall need any more, as I feel very well except that I have not entirely got my strength yet but soon will with the appetite I have. It is just three weeks you may recollect, since I called at your institute with my constitution as I thought, broken entirely and never thought you would be able to cure me perfectly, but thought you might be able to do [illegible] [illegible] the pain in my back and head, and strengthen my nerves so that I would not get excited and tremble at everything Now that you know what I expected, you may judge of my satisfaction at my complete recovery from those symptoms, and the removal of those sores and blotches from my skin, and the ulcers in my throat and the entire [illegible] page of those complaints which you said were principally the cause of my weakness I can hardly tell you which is the greatest my joy or my surprise for except not having fully got my strength I feel as well as any man can feel.

Enclosed I send you twenty dollars over your charge, and think myself cheaply cured If you think anybody will be benefited, you may put this letter in the newspapers. Believe me gratefully yours, THOMAS HAYNES.

Thankfulness is the incentive to gratitude.

CERTIFICATE—Prompted by an honest desire of my heart, I wish to lay before the public a case which deserves commendation, not only as an act of scientific skill, but that of humanity also About two years ago, I suddenly, and from causes unknown to me was seized with a fit of [illegible] which owing to my inability to meet the expenses consequent upon a thorough medical treatment, and the discouragement which I met with on attempting it, soon became such (I was then led to believe) as to defy the skill of any physician I was frequently while in pursuit of my calling thrown down to the ground without the slightest [illegible] and although insensible to the agonies, I yet [illegible] the miseries of my life and soon learned to look upon those who would render assistance or shelter me from danger as enemies who sought to prolong the existence of my [illegible]. While in this state and having, previous to my affliction, tasted the sweets of life I once more was induced to attempt seeking aid of a physician, and, by recommendation, called upon Dr L J Czapkay I told him of my circumstances, and of my inability to reward him for his services; [illegible] of which however he at once undertook my case, and with the blessing of God I was once more restored to perfect health I am [illegible] to reward him for the boon which I enjoy at present and yet conscious of my indebtedness, I consider it due to myself and all afflicted to make the case public, in order that those in need of medical advice may find a physician in whom every confidence can be placed
